PORTUGAL is the westernmost country of the continental Europe. At Cabo da Roca the land ends and the sea begins. It is a country with the oldest established borders in the world; its territorial shape remained the same for almost eight hundred years. PORTUGAL is a land of unique colors in natural and urban landscapes, thanks to the combination of specific intrusion of the sun and the typical architecture and vegetation.

The country of numerous sailors and explorers. A country where everyone finds something for themselves from the beautiful royal palaces to wine cellars. A nostalgic, wistful Fado and hospitable hosts in every corner of this country to make the experience complete.

It is difficult to make a selection of cities and sites for touring because each offers something unique, but we made an effort to present you the best nine days experience that PORTUGAL can give.
